

Appl. No. 09/629,553

Amdt. Dated 8/4/2005

Response to Advisory action dated 06/27/2005

REMARKS

Claims 4, 14, 17-21 and 25 are pending and were allowed. No new matter has been added.

Disclaimers Relating to Claim Interpretation and Prosecution History Estoppel

In the June 10, 2005 response to the Office Action mailed May 6, 2005, claims 1, 10 and 22 were amended to include the features of allowed claims 4, 14, 17-21 and 25: "displaying the advertisement in accordance with a play list" and "pausing the play list if the user has not interacted with the local device with respect to the client application for a predetermined period of time." In the Advisory Action mailed June 27, 2005, the Examiner did not enter the amendment of June 10, 2005 because "several limitations of the allowed claims have been left out of the amendments to claims 1, 20 and 22. The newly amended claims are much more broad in scope than the allowed claims and require further consideration and/or search to determine patentability."

In order to further prosecution, claims 1-3, 5-10, 12, 13, 15, 16, 22-24 and 26-29 have been canceled, notwithstanding the belief that these claims were allowable.

Conclusion

It is submitted, however, that the independent and dependent claims include other significant and substantial recitations which are not disclosed in the cited references. Thus, the claims are also patentable for additional reasons. However, for economy the additional grounds for patentability are not set forth here.

In view of all of the above, it is respectfully submitted that the present application is now in condition for allowance. Reconsideration and reexamination are respectfully requested and allowance at an early date is solicited.
